Warmington, Dec. 18.—Represents tries McCleidan, of New York, Monda introduced in the house a bill for the reorganization of the army. It was drawn after consultation with man army officers and is supposed to represent the ideas of the younger element in the army. It makes some eyr rad leal changes in the staff and has some movel features. It comocidakes the adjutant general' department and the inspector general' department in the great staff, as sorbs the ordinance department in to the artillery corps, transferrin, to the artillery of the agrant copys to the great copys to the infantry, it also adopt the early arrength of the Miles bill. One of the new features is requirement that allo differer of the general staff shall perform a tour of outy before each promotion, which would give them line duty at lease very ten years. BIG SHIPBUILDING YARD.

NEW YORK, Dea 13.—Shooters' is land, in Newsribay, for the last ten years leased to the Titlewater (1)! Co. has been sold to a company of local shipbuilders for a sum of money said to be in excess of 88,000. The island is only seven acres in extent, but by building please and builkhoads its area may be extended to about 20 acres. There is a belief in some quarter that the purchase of Nhooters' island ispart of a project for the establish mean of a great shipbuilding yard there and on listen fieland, from which there and on listen fieland, from which it is separated only by the Kill Von Caulington of the categories. Of this theory on confirmation could be obtained Monday in the absence of Mr. Carnight on any one who could be regarded as he personal representative.

Mass and Archbishop Ireland
Preached the Sermon.

No Doubt is Entertained of It Ratification by the President and the Republican Leaders.

It is Pred-cted it Witt Be Ratified Before March, So That There Will Be No Necessity for an Extra Session on That Account.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The president starts on his southern trip Tweaday a stermons, and, as he does not return until Tueaday or Wednesday of moxt week, it is expected by the senators that the peace treaty, algned on Satur-day night in Paris, will not be submit-ted to congress until after the first of the year.

ted to congress until after the first of the year.

If congress decides to take a holiday recess it will probably adjourn the day the president returns to Washington. As the peace commissioners will not reach Washington until the middle of next week the tresty can not possibly be sent to the senate hefore Christmas. The president and secretary of stake to study it, and there are other matters, even if congress does remain in session, which will prevent the treaty going to the senate. It is not known how long the foreign relations committee will keep the treaty in the committee room before submitting it to the full senate, but it is liardly possible now that the senate will be able to ado not the fore the middle of January.

Then if the absolute part of the present the middle of January.

ture. So grave has become the situation that Senatur Hale has decided to go to Augusta and be present at the meeting of the republican caucus on Zanarys. This, it is said, is in aniwar to a demand from the republican members of the legislature that Senator Hale come to Augusta and explain his position before the republican caucus. If his explanation is not satisfactory the republicans may bring out Congressman Dingley as a candidate and defeat Senator Hale.
